Ain Dubai Factsheet

■ Location	Bluewaters Island, off the coast of Jumeirah Beach Residence (JBR), Dubai, UAE
■ Dimensions & Records	Height: 250 meters (world's tallest observation wheel) Diameter: ~210 meters Steel Used: 11,200 tonnes (≈ 33% more than the Eiffel Tower) Spoke Cables: 192 cables (length equal to Dubai–Cairo distance)
■ Cabins & Capacity	Total Cabins: 48 air-conditioned cabins Capacity: Up to 1,750 passengers per rotation Cabin Types: Observation, Social, Exclusive
■ Ride Experience	Duration: ~38 minutes per rotation Views: 360° views of Burj Khalifa, Palm Jumeirah, Dubai Marina, Burj Al Arab, Arabian Gulf
■■ Construction	Developers: Hyundai Engineering & Construction + Starneth Engineering Construction Start: May 2015 Opening Date: 21 October 2021 Hub & Spindle Weight: 1,805 tonnes
■ Operational Timeline	Opened: 21 October 2021 Temporarily Closed: March 2022 Reopened: 26 December 2024
■ Special Uses	Private events, corporate launches, weddings Customizable lighting for festivals and brand promotions

■ Ain Dubai Key Points

• World's tallest observation wheel at 250m.
• Located on Bluewaters Island near JBR and Dubai Marina.
• Features 48 modern, air-conditioned cabins with multiple categories (standard, social, private).
• Each ride lasts ~38 minutes with stunning 360° views of Dubai.
• Can host up to 1,750 passengers per rotation.
• Built with 11,200 tonnes of steel, more than the Eiffel Tower.
• Multipurpose venue suitable for events, celebrations, and corporate activations.

■ Terms & Conditions

• Tickets are non-refundable and non-transferable unless otherwise stated.
• Guests are required to arrive at least 30 minutes before boarding time.
• Children under 16 must be accompanied by an adult.
• Smoking, outside food, and drinks are strictly prohibited inside cabins.
• Management reserves the right to refuse entry for safety or operational reasons.
• Attraction operation is subject to weather conditions and maintenance schedules.
• Special event bookings must be made in advance and are subject to availability.