

WORD ON THE STREET

Your Full-Service Event Partner

Who We Are

A full-service event partner, delivering ground-breaking experiences.

Supporting brands to deliver innovative & original events and activations.

Helping to cut through the noise with compelling ideas and content to live long in the memory.

What We Do

We connect people to brands by creating one off, exceptional experiences.

A successful event changes human behaviour.

Focussing on your goals, we persuade your audience to think, feel, or do something.

We deliver innovative activations and events aligning your goals with a focus on your audience through compelling concepts and content.

Principles

We believe there are three key principles to hitting your goals and creating a cutting edge event;

The Experience you want people to have.
How you want to Engage with them.
The Environment you create.

Create the right mix to make a true connection and leave a Positive legacy from your event.

Sustainability

Our team is passionate about incorporating sustainability into both Word on the Street and your events.

Everyone is at different stages in their sustainability journey and there are many challenges.

Be it the first steps or striving for a fully inclusive, carbon negative and considerate event, we can help.

Word on the Street is proud to be a member of Isla, the event industries sustainability body.

Lou | International Corporate Client

The Word on The Street team are an extension of our own. They bring a wealth of experience and an abundance of creativity, ensuring that every detail is considered, and always delivering a beautifully elegant event which is memorable for all.

Trixie | Singapore Based Communications Agency

We engaged Word On The Street for an event in London. Had a really great experience working with Ed. He managed our event seamlessly, from the initial site recce, to planning out the logistics & taking care of every minor detail. Am glad to have engaged an experienced project lead who knows the in & outs of running an event. Will definitely work with Ed & co again.

Angela | International Publishing Company

Word on the Street helped us to create a truly memorable and flawless corporate event. From start to finish, Rick and the team were incredibly professional and thoughtful. They are well experienced and passionate about what they do. A privilege to have worked with.
